The deposit of the successful tenderer will be retained towards security deposit for the satisfactory fulfilment of the contract according to the specified conditions. The deposits of others will be refunded immediately after the rejection of their tenders.

The quotations will be received by the Deputy Accountant-General at 11 A.M. on the 19th November 1952 and opened by him immediately. Tenderers who desire to be present at the opening of the tenders may do so. The Accountant-General reserves the right without assigning any reason, to reject all or any of the tenders.

The tenderers should submit proof of their capacity to execute large works by suitable references or testimonials.

Quotations should be submitted separately per page of (1) running matter, (2) statements and (3) for binding work. The total number of typed pages to be printed is approximately 1,000. The number of volumes to be bound will be 1,500 approximately more or less. The Accountant-General does not, however, bind himself to give the entire work to a single printer or company of printers.

Sample of the work to be printed could be seen at the office of the undersigned on any working day (other than Saturday) between 11 A.M. and 5 P.M. and between 11 A.M. and 1 P.M. on Saturdays.

Yours faithfully,

V. K. SUBRAMANYAM,
Deputy Accountant-General.
